

Ed Cabezas

Ed Cabezas is a Lead at World Business Chicago, where he focuses on business development, and talent & workforce strategy also serving on the DEI committee. Ed holds a Bachelor of Arts & Sciences Degree in Political Science from Northeastern Illinois University. He also holds a Certificate from UIC Law in Fair Housing & Fair Lending used for advocating for Housing Insecure populations. Also serving as a National Fellow for AmeriCorps under the Lead for America initiative for the Chicago Digital Equity Council, and the Illinois Office of Broadband. Ed is also a member at large of the Illinois Local Government Hispanic Network I.L.G.H.N. and serves as a part of its membership committee. Previously, Ed worked as a community organizer on the southwest side of Chicago, where he returned to his community to assist his local underrepresented community during the pandemic.