

Mariana Priscilla Bojorquez serves as the Latino Engagement Librarian for the City of Evanston, Illinois where her role is to provide library services for the Evanston Latino community both within and beyond the walls of the library, with an extra emphasis on the needs of Evanston's growing population of Spanish speaking residents. She provides support to the City to move forward in providing equitable access and relevant programs and services to Evanston's Latino residents. Mariana is a bilingual Latina librarian with exceptional communication skills, resourcefulness, cultural competence, and enthusiasm. Prior to assuming her role in Evanston, Mariana worked for the library systems in Forest Park, IL, Mount Prospect, IL, and River Forest, IL. Mariana graduated from Dominican University with a Master of Library and Information Science in 2018, was born and raised in Los Angeles, California.